

I do not think NJ's consumer protection laws should be weakened. Thank goodness NJ has the right people in place to ensure that NJ resident rights are protected. It is a very unfair practice for the FCC to consider overtuning NJ's "Do Not Call" law.